* (We)
Our boys are cross-ing o - ver seas to fight somewhere in France; They are
And when they're marching to the front so far a-way from home They'll be go-ing, go-ing, go-ing ev-'ry day.
sing-ing, sing-ing, sing-ing as they go.
A call for aid has come to them (us) from They'll fight to win and nev- er cease till

*The words suggested in italics may be continued throughout the piece if desired, thus giving it a more personal significance to our boys and making it an ideal marching song.
